Shri Hemchandra Bhalchandra
Patil alias Dharmadhikari ..Petitioner vs.

1. Shri Suresh Bhalchandra
Patil @ Dharmadhikari and others ..Respondents

Shri Balasaheb Deshmukh for petitioner.

CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIARI J.
20th December, 2007

P.C.

1. The application preferred by the petitioner for correction of the Appellate judgment and order invokes section 152 of the Code of Civil Procedure and inherent power to correct obvious error. That application is rejected in his absence. That is how the present writ petition. Admittedly, there is no opponent or other party to this proceeding. The matter is between the petitioner and the Court. The petitioner has to be heard before the impugned order is passed. In such circumstances, order under challenge is set aside. The petition is allowed. Application for correction is restored to file and should now be disposed of after hearing the petitioner as expeditiously as possible and within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order.
